IMAGINATION

The Power of IMAGINATION

I've met many Christians who want to see more of God in their lives. What they often don't realize is that their experience of His power and presence is tied to their imagination. Now, when I say "imagination," most Christians think I'm talking about fantasy or mind over matter. I'm not talking about either one. Did you know that Scripture has a lot to say about the imagination? When it's used in a positive sense, Scripture calls it hope!

For we are saved by hope: but hope that is seen is not hope: for what a man seeth, why doth he yet hope for?

Romans 8:24

The part of you that hopes is a result of the part of you that imagines. How? Because when you hope, you're creating a mental picture of what you'd like to see happen. There are many scriptures on this topic. Let's start with a verse in Hebrews.

Now faith is the substance of things hoped for, the evidence of things not seen.

Hebrews 11:1

You could say it this way: Faith is the substance of your positive imagination, the evidence of things not seen. According to this verse, faith brings into reality the things that you positively imagine. It's like your spiritual womb. Your imagination will conceive what God's Word says, and then faith brings to birth the things that you've conceived.

Thou wilt keep him in perfect peace, whose mind is stayed on thee: because he trusteth in thee.

Isaiah 26:3

The Hebrew word for mind in this verse is "yetser" which means conception, which is also translated as imagination. I don't know if that helps you, but it blesses me! This is so important, because there are a lot of people who look at hope as a non-issue. As a matter of fact, many faith people have downplayed the role of hope. It says in 1 Corinthians 13:13,

And now abideth faith, hope, charity, these three; but the greatest of these is charity.

People in the faith crowd, of course, will emphasize faith. And they understand the importance of love and how it's the greatest of all. But did you know that hope should be right up there as one of the greatest forces, with faith and love?

When I've heard people use the word hope when talking about receiving from God, I've heard others criticize them, saying, "You don't need to hope; you need to believe!" They don't realize that without hope—without a positive imagination—you can't believe! If there's nothing hoped for, faith doesn't have anything to give substance to.

It's not just believe and receive. You have to conceive the Word, then you believe what it says, and then you receive what it promises. You might ask, "How do you conceive the Word of God?" Proverbs 23:7 says, "For as he thinketh in his heart, so is he."

What you think or meditate on is how you conceive things, whether good or bad. If you meditate on your circumstances, that's what you'll conceive. It'll be a self-fulfilling prophecy! But if you meditate on what God's Word has to say, you'll conceive what God's Word says. It'll change everything about you—how you see yourself, your circumstances, everything. That's powerful! I hope you are getting this.

Blessed is the man that walketh not in the counsel of the ungodly, nor standeth in the way of sinners, nor sitteth in the seat of the scornful. But his delight is in the law of the LORD; and in his law doth he meditate day and night
Psalm 1:1–2 (emphasis added)

Why do the heathen rage, and the people imagine a vain thing?
Psalm 2:1 (emphasis added)

The word meditate in Psalm 1:2 is the same word that's translated as imagine in Psalm 2:1. Your heart is like soil that'll grow whatever thoughts are sown into it (Mark 4:26–28). What goes into your heart is what you imagine happening. Your imagination will go in the direction of your dominant thoughts. That's why you have to make sure that you guard your heart (Prov. 4:23).

You know, if don't have a specific place to go, well then any old road will do. You could just head in any direction because it wouldn't matter. But if you want to go in a specific destination—say from Texas to New York—you have to picture in your mind where New York City is and visualize the direction that you'll be going.

Whether you look at a map or use a GPS, you have to move in a certain direction. You have to have the end goal in sight. And if you're traveling a long distance, and it's going to take you more than one day to get to a certain place, you know what? You have to have some idea that you're going to spend the night somewhere along the way. You have to think about these things. All of that is your imagination.

Some of the things I'm saying are hard to put into words because I'm talking about things you can't see. But this is the way I live! My ministry and my relationship with God would not be where they are today without putting these things into practice. There are a lot of goals that I've set that I believe are from the Lord. The only way that I know I'll get there is if I imagine the things God has put on my heart and meditate on them. When I do, they'll paint a picture on the inside of me that I'll be able to see manifest through faith. They are going to come to pass.

Sometimes it may not look like it, but you watch: whether it's finances or healing or whatever, I am going to have all that I need to accomplish everything that God has told me to accomplish. Whatever I do shall prosper!

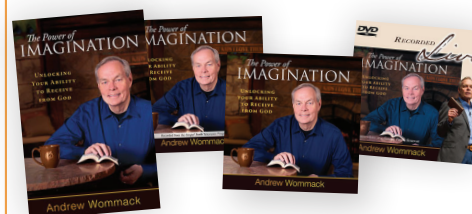

I really believe that the things I'm sharing with you will change your life. If you want to experience more of the supernatural power of God, if you want to see more of His provision, if you want to see more healing, this is the way to do it. I encourage you to get my teaching titled The Power of Imagination. It's available in DVD formats and as a book.

These materials cover everything that I've said here and much more. You will be blessed. To order, go to Andrew Wommack Ministries Uganda Bookstore at Park Royal Mall 6th Floor, Buganda Road, call our Helpline at +256 200-300 000, or through Jumia.

Celebrating a Milestone:

THE 5000TH EPISODE OF THE GOSPEL TRUTH

“A single seed has exponential power. A seed sown in good soil produces a harvest, bringing forth some thirty, some sixty, and some a hundredfold. One seed can reproduce an unknown harvest. The seed is the Word of God, but there must be one who is willing to sow the seed.”

Little did Andrew know that what started on March 23, 1968, in a weekly prayer meeting would go on to transform millions of lives. Andrew’s encounter with the love of God launched him into ministry and the spreading of the nearly-too-good-to-be-true news.

After decades of sharing the Gospel, Andrew heard the Lord say, “You’re just now starting your ministry.”

Andrew then met Stephen Bransford, the current executive producer of television and media production, in 1999. With just $70,000 to get started in television, Stephen recognized that filming Andrew with a single camera would be the best approach for his teaching style. Stephen and his wife also bought Andrew the table and chair that he used on his first set, which he still uses today.

The first episode of The Gospel

Truth aired January 3, 2000. In the beginning, the show only reached 3 percent of the U.S. population but has since grown to reach a potential audience of five billion people worldwide. Remarkably, the show still uses only one camera for filming!

On September 18, 2023, thanks to the financial support of our amazing partners, we aired the 5,000th original episode of The Gospel Truth television program. Thank you, partners, for making this incredible milestone possible. We’re so excited to celebrate this with you!

Every transformed life that’s been touched by this ministry is having a ripple effect around the world because of one person’s revelation of God’s grace. Imagine what will happen as more and more individuals around the world get hold of The Gospel Truth.

Here are just a few individuals who are spreading the Gospel because of Andrew’s ministry and TV program:

- Ricky Burge: Former drug dealer, now a Charis Bible College graduate spreading the Gospel in Africa
- Devin and Jessica Grome: Charis

graduates, now spreading the Gospel in Hungary

- Carrie and Mike Pickett: Established Charis Russia, now servant leaders at Andrew Wommack Ministries and Charis

- Ed and Brenda Laquidara: Set free from evolutionism, now pastoring Zoo Church at Animal Adventures Science Center in Massachusetts

- Butch and Julieann Hartman: Miraculously healed, founded Healing Journeys Today, now pastoring and also hosting the GospelTruth.TV children’s show The Garden

Partners, great is your reward in heaven, because every life changed through The Gospel Truth television broadcast is attributed to your account. Together we’re sowing God’s Word into millions of lives. Thank you so much for laboring alongside us to reach as many people as possible with the life-changing truth that sets people free.

You can watch the 5,000th episode of The Gospel Truth TV program online at awmi.net in the daily show archives!

God's Dreams or Your Dreams?

pursuing God and His greater purpose for your life, trusting that His plans for you are good!

Remember Gideon in the book of Judges? Despite his initial fears and doubts, when he allowed God to live and work through him, he became a mighty man of valor! Gideon's story is an inspiring reminder that even the seemingly insignificant can do great exploits when they let God's spirit guide and empower them.

You need to dream big, but you also need to allow God to give you those dreams. And remember, those dreams should not be your pursuit—God should be. Pursue God above all else, and as you love and commune with Him, He'll stir up the dreams in your heart and reveal the way to fulfill His calling for you.

So many times, God has helped me, taught me, and directed me. And my greatest desire is to get out of the way so that God can use me. God also has spectacular plans for your life and wants them to become reality. And as you pursue Him, He will make them come to pass!

Audrey Mack presented this teaching at the 2022 Women Arise event. If you loved it, join us for Women Arise on November 2-4, 2023!

Do you know the difference between your personal desires and dreams and God's desires and dreams for you? Have you ever wondered how to align your dreams with God's and navigate around all the distractions?

According to Psalm 37:4, when you delight yourself in the Lord, He will give you the desires of your heart. As you spend more time with God, the desires He has placed within your born-again spirit will increasingly come into focus.

As a believer, you can get to the place where your ego takes a back seat and Christ's life within you becomes the driving force. By living with faith in God's plan, you become a vessel for His grace to manifest. Look what the Apostle Paul said:

Indeed, I have been crucified with Christ. My ego is no longer central. It is no longer important that I appear righteous before you or have your good opinion, and I am no longer driven to impress God. Christ lives in me. The life you see me living is not "mine," but it is lived by faith in the Son of God, who loved me and gave himself for me.

Galatians 2:20, The Message,

Surrendering to God's purpose doesn't mean giving up your individuality. Instead, it's about

The Gospel Truth with Andrew Wommack Spreads Wings in Spanish

Have you heard the exciting news? Andrew Wommack's Gospel Truth program is now airing in ten different languages with Spanish being the tenth one, reaching an even broader audience through voice actor translations. Language is no longer a barrier for Spanish-speaking viewers, making the truth shine brighter than ever before!

Spanish is the second-most spoken language in the world, so the introduction of the new Spanish broadcast is a major milestone for Andrew Wommack Ministries. The establishment of our exciting new Spanish ministry department has been in the works for over five years, so it is a blessing to see this amazing vision unfold into reality!

In addition to Andrew's new Gospel Truth en Español program that initially aired April 2022, the Spanish ministry department and others have worked together to open a phone center in Mexico; broadcast Andrew's show in Spanish on Enlace, an international Christian TV network; duplicate the English AWM website into Spanish; create Spanish social media accounts like Facebook and YouTube, and more!

Our Spanish ministry department and other teams have been working to reproduce all of our English materials for our Spanish-speaking audience. We have numerous teams working tirelessly to reach our newest audience with the Good News. Our efforts are not only impacting the Spanish-speaking audience in America but also in nearly sixty countries around the world.

The results have been remarkable from the start. Our Mexico phone center received around two thousand phone calls during its early stages. After Andrew's show began airing in Spanish, Charis Mexico experienced a surge in public interest. Additionally, our new social media platforms reached almost 150,000 viewers in just a few months.

The intense behind-the-scenes planning for this massive project all started with our former television producer, Michael Mohr. He caught a glimpse of the future and began working with the AWM Mexico office to translate The Gospel Truth into Español. Enrique de la Vega, the current bilingual Spanish ministry specialist, is now carrying the torch to expand the vision beyond its initial conception.

Due to Enrique's personal experiences with the suffocating weight of legalism often felt in many Hispanic churches, he understands the importance of reaching the Hispanic community. He was once trapped in religious bondage until he learned about God's love through Andrew's Gospel Truth program. His newfound freedom in God's grace ignited a fire in Enrique's heart. Now he is passionate about seeing other Spanish-speakers hear the same message that changed his life.

Thanks to our friends and partners, this groundbreaking initiative continues to grow into much more than we could ever imagine. Your giving fuels worldwide vision and is spreading the Gospel farther and deeper than it's ever gone before!

GOOD REPORTS!

THE GOOD NEWS YOU WON'T LIKELY HEAR ON THE EVENING NEWS

The world may be growing darker, but it's in the midst of the darkness that light shines the brightest. In this month's edition of "Good Reports," we're excited to inspire and encourage you with some more good news!

Oklahoma Governor Signs the "Women's Bill of Rights"

The day Oklahoma Republican Governor Kevin Stitt signed an executive order that's being referred to as the "Women's Bill of Rights," he said, "Today we're taking a stand against this out-of-control gender ideology that is eroding the very foundation of our society. We are going to be safeguarding the very essence of what it means to be a woman. Oklahomans are fed up with attempts to confuse the word woman and turn it into some kind of ambiguous definition that harms real women."

This Oklahoma policy recognizes that there are only two genders and clearly defines the words female, male, man, boy, woman, girl, father, and mother. The executive order defines a female as a "person whose biological reproductive system is designed to produce ova" and a male as a "person whose biological reproductive system is designed to fertilize the ova of a female."

Schools and state agencies must comply with those definitions when collecting data and provide restrooms and locker rooms dedicated for boys and girls, respectively. Stitt signed this executive order surrounded by female doctors, athletes, and business leaders, including Riley Gaines, a former University of Kentucky swimmer who took her case for fairness in women's sports all the way to the U.S. Senate.

Praise God for Governor Stitt, who has decided to take a stand for what's biblical and right!

"I have three daughters," Stitt said. "My wife and I have been married for twenty-five years. I did this for them, for Riley Gaines, and for all the young girls in the state of Oklahoma." Stitt stated that requiring women to compete against biological men is insane enough. But forcing women to undress in locker rooms with biological men during competitions is "absolutely wrong."

More Bills Protecting Rights in Oklahoma

- In May 2023, Governor Stitt signed a bill into law making it a crime for healthcare workers to conduct irreversible gender transition surgeries and hormone therapies for children under the age of eighteen.
- The governor has also previously signed measures prohibiting biological boys and men from playing on female sports teams and requiring a public school student to only use the bathroom of the sex listed on their birth certificate.
- In April 2022, Stitt signed a bill forbidding the use of nonbinary gender markers on state birth certificates. Senator Micheal Bergstrom, the Senate sponsor of this bill, made the statement, "We must stand up and put a stop to this nonsense regarding biological sex. It's not a complicated issue—biologically, you're either a male or female. There should be no other option to choose from on a birth certificate."

Mike Pickett

Mike was a missionary in Russia for eleven years before meeting his wife, Carrie, and encountering Charis Bible College for the first time. After directing Andrew Wommack Ministries and Charis operations in Russia, he and Carrie returned to the States in 2015. Mike now serves as the vice president of Charis and International Operations of AWM.

The Lord wants to expand you beyond your own borders and your own concepts of yourself (Is. 54:2–3).

How precious also are thy thoughts unto me, O God! how great is the sum of them! If I should count them, they are more in number than the sand: when I awake, I am still with thee.

Psalm 139:17–18

That’s an incredible thought—the thoughts that God thinks toward you and me far outnumber the sands of the sea. God has had a lot of time to think about you and to place you in the place that you’re in. And God’s plans for you are better than any plan you could ever develop for yourself.

Commit thy way unto the LORD; trust also in him; and he shall bring it to pass.

Psalm 37:5

The word “commit” comes from the Hebrew word galal, and it means “to roll” (Strong’s Concordance).

Imagine taking a blank piece of paper and crumpling it into a ball. This ball symbolizes your life and the plans you have made. Now, picture another piece of paper being crumpled around the first one. This represents God’s will and His plans for your life. This concept of surrounding one crumpled paper with another is exactly what the Hebrew word galal means—to completely roll up into another.

Walking in God’s Plan for Your Life!

Psalm 37:5 is about truly being committed with all your heart to the Lord and being able to say, “Lord, it’s not about me; it’s about You. It’s about what You want for me. It’s about the desires You have for my life—I’m laying this down.”

What you’re doing is you’re taking your life, this piece of paper (the inner ball), and you’re rolling it up into another life, God’s life (the outer piece of paper wrapped over it). It’s like you’re saying, “I may have a crumpled life, but I’m giving it to You, and now I’m covered by You.”

Now the two, which were two pieces of paper, have become one. They’re inseparable. One’s encompassed inside the other. So now, wherever you take this outer piece of paper, the inner piece of paper goes too.

We’re now rolled up in Christ Jesus, and we’re committed to Him. Wherever God goes, we go. Whatever He thinks, we think. Whatever He does, we do.

What an amazing concept, being committed! We’re making that commitment and we’re not backing out. I’m committed to my wife. I have a covenant with her. She’ll never get rid of me. Why? Because I’m committed to her. And that’s the same thing we’re doing in our relationship with the Lord. It’s no longer about you or me, but the God who lives in us (1 Cor. 6:17 and Gal. 2:20).

Testimonials

Testimonies have been edited for length and clarity.

"I am so grateful for your teachings. They have been transforming my life! I know that what you speak is the truth and is the whole Word of God. My sister named Maria was admitted to the hospital in May and placed in the ICU for COVID and was at the point of death. Her brain was swollen, she was going into heart failure, and her lungs were filled with fluid. It was a dark and dire situation for those without faith. But thanks to what I've learned from your teaching, I faced the situation with joy! I went and laid hands on her and miraculously witnessed death departing from her like a blanket being lifted from a bed. Immediately, she began to recover! Her vital signs became stable, she came out of the coma, and she began responding to my voice. I asked her if she had spoken with the Lord, and she nodded yes. Then I asked her about the presence of angels in the room. Again, she nodded yes! All the tubes came out, and on the seventh day she went home to her family and husband."

— Esther C.

"Immense thanks for the ministry. I have been a viewer for several years, starting with GOD TV and now through Roku, where we can easily access both current and archived programs. Many, many times I have tuned in and found the content for the day confirming what I had been mulling over. Thank you for the strong emphasis on faith and healing. Coming from an ultraconservative Baptist background, it usually takes repeated hearing and repeated deep plowing to soften a heart that's been hardened by religion. Thank you for your faithfulness and generosity."

— Alan G.

"Thanks to your teaching titled Four Basics of Hearing God's Voice, I am thrilled that the Bible is becoming clearer to me. I used to perceive the Bible as full of parables that were hard to grasp. But now, through understanding how to hear God's voice, I can comprehend His Word more deeply. I am elated to say that I now hear God our Father with clarity. I can also communicate with the Holy Spirit, something that was difficult for me in the past. Just today, I spoke in tongues for twenty minutes, which was an incredible experience. I feel more at peace than ever before. It is evident that God is truly speaking to me, and for that I am so grateful."

— Hendes

"Andrew, I can't imagine where I'd be right now if you hadn't obeyed God and accepted the calling on your life. In 2018, I was diagnosed with nickel and cobalt allergies. Like most people, I had never heard of it. I had already been introduced to your teachings, so I immersed myself in the Word. I prayed and believed for healing, but with no success. There were times when I wanted to give up, but God reminded me that I was already healed. A few months ago, I had a breakthrough—I ate avocado, which is very high in nickel, with no reaction! Now I'm able to eat mostly everything I wasn't able to eat before. God is such a wonderful Father, and He doesn't want His children to suffer. He came through for me, and He will do the same for anyone who believes!"

— Sacha L.

Truths You Need to Know About God

In any relationship you have, whether it's with a friend, a spouse, or God, understanding the nature and character of the other person is really important. Otherwise, how could you forge any kind of deep and meaningful connection? Without knowing the other person well, misinformation could undermine the relationship. The same goes for knowing God's true nature.

Your relationship with God should be rooted in truth. You can't trust someone you don't know well, and you can't have a meaningful relationship with God if you don't truly know Him.

As for God, his way is perfect: the word of the LORD is tried: he is a buckler to all those that trust in him.

Psalm 18:30

What's the best way to understand God's true nature? It's through His Word—the Bible! God's heart and intentions are revealed all throughout Scripture, and reading it will help you gain a clearer understanding of who God really is. It's great to pray and talk to God, but it's essential that you also engage with His Word.

Throughout history, religious institutions have often painted a distorted picture of God that leads many people astray. Sadly, those misrepresentations have created a lot of confusion about God's true nature. To break free from religious misconceptions, you need to seek the truth in God's Word for yourself. The Bible itself declares that God's Word is truth, and knowing it frees us from deception.

And ye shall know the truth, and the truth shall make you free.

John 8:32

One common misunderstanding propagated by some religious teachings concerns the sovereignty of God. God's authority and supremacy are absolute. However, it is crucial to recognize that God granted people free will and control over certain aspects of life. This is evident from the Scriptures, such as when God gave mankind dominion over the earth (Gen. 1:26).

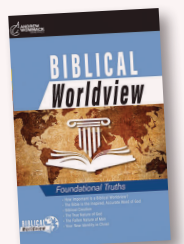

Tragedies and difficult circumstances are not necessarily the result of God's will, as many have been led to believe. The Bible tells us we have an adversary (the devil) roaming around like a lion, seeking whom he may devour (1 Pet. 5:8). Having a correct understanding of God as the loving and compassionate Father that He is allows us to trust Him in challenging times rather than blaming Him for our hardships.

For thou, Lord, art good, and ready to forgive; and plenteous in mercy unto all them that call upon thee.

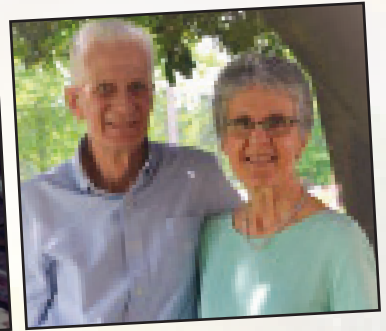

Psalm 86:5

I hope you can see how vital it is to avoid creating your own version of who God is based on personal preferences or what religion has taught you. Instead, by reading the Bible, you can discover the true nature of God and develop a genuine relationship with Him that's based on truth, just as you would any other close friend. Because He's the greatest friend you'll ever have.

Visit awmi.net/BW-Foundation to dive deeper into the truth about God's nature and how you can strengthen your relationship with Him through a biblical worldview.

From New Age TO GOD'S GRACE

Have you ever felt a holy dissatisfaction where you knew there had to be more to this life?

That's exactly where Randy and Melissa found themselves. Blindly running from the religion they grew up with and searching for God in all the wrong places, they got roped into the New Age doctrine.

Years later, Melissa found herself sick with an autoimmune disorder called multiple chemical sensitivity. She was plagued with shame and unworthiness, thinking it was God who was punishing her, trying to teach her something.

Each day, Randy witnessed his wife wasting away, feeling all hope was lost.

But little did they know, God was about to intervene!

Melissa pleaded and begged God for her healing, saying, "If You just show me what's wrong, I'll do whatever it takes!"

Having tried every New Age cure available and desperate for answers, she decided to attend a Christian conference in Georgia. When she received her healing the third day of the conference, God reminded her of her promise to Him.

God asked her, "Do you love Me, or do you love the form and practice of New Age? Are you in love with what you're doing, or is your life Mine?" Melissa knew it was time for her to let go of the lies and false spiritual beliefs that had become her identity.

That marked the start of an incredible journey with Jesus for Randy and Melissa, as they embarked on a quest to discover the truth. They wholeheartedly gave their lives to Jesus and began diligently seeking Him (Jer. 29:13).

They started devoting numerous hours listening to Kenneth Copeland and Andrew Wommack on television, shutting out all other distractions. Melissa was particularly drawn to Andrew's grounded approach to the Word, saying,

It wasn't a lot of hype. Randy and I had both been deceived, and we never wanted to be deceived again. We both were so hungry for God. Now we knew the right path.

Andrew's teaching The War Is Over really opened their eyes to the truth that they no longer had to try to earn God's love and fellowship. They discovered relationship with God truly is a free gift (Rom. 6:23).

Thank you, partners! Because of you, the Oberraths were able to find the relationship with God that they had always craved.

The Oberraths, now third-year Charis Bible College graduates, have a homeless ministry and are senior pastors of Kingdom Life Church International in Durham, North Carolina. To support their life-changing ministry, visit their website at StewardsoftheMysteries.org today!

Randy and Melissa are just one example of the countless lives transformed through God's Word at Charis. Visit awmi.net/WarOver to watch the FREE, life-transforming teaching The War Is Over that set Randy and Melissa free!

Directed into Purpose and Calling through Empowerment by The Word.

Abraham Waweru is currently a third-year student at Charis Bible College cheerfully and excitedly volunteering in several capacities at the Andrew Wommack Ministries. He is actively serving as a teacher of The Word under the Discipleship Evangelism program both in Kampala and other districts in Uganda.

Abraham got to know about Charis Bible College and Andrew Wommack Ministries in 2018. On one Sunday while at his church, an announcement was made about a visiting American Tele evangelist called Andrew Wommack. This announcement was received with great applause from the audience. Abraham had never heard of Andrew! The applause from the audience drew his curiosity, and in his quest for knowledge decided he was going to attend the crusade.

At the crusade, Abraham was mesmerized at the simplicity with which Andrew taught The Word! Scriptures Abraham had struggled to understand and relate with e.g 'you are gods' were so simply explained by Andrew. Revelation and understanding came through so he could relate and apply himself easily.

The simplicity with which Andrew taught The Word set Abraham off in search of more Andrew resources and books. He wanted to know more, and he found these resources freely accessible on the website. The first book he read was Spirit, Soul & Body. It was simple, plain, and very empowering. From then on, Abraham's perspective changed about his identity and how God sees him.

Abraham says Andrew was a different kind of teacher, constantly pointing people to God and not to himself! Andrew emphasizes in one of his books that The Word is the supreme authority! This attitude in Andrew caused a great attraction and admiration in Abraham to Andrew's character of soberness, and he grew in trust towards his ministering.

Initially Abraham was reluctant to join the Bible College since he was accessing thousands of materials on the website! He was unaware that the Bible College had many other instructors!

Abraham also had other heart questions which he sought answers for! For example, he would see people around him falling under the anointing and yet he would remain seated in the midst of that multitude and feel absolutely nothing! What was the reason? These things challenged his faith! People professed extravagant faith! He felt there was still a knowledge gap!

At about this time, Abraham's co-worker joined Charis Bible College. Within the smallest space of time, he saw amazing visible transformation in her! Then he also noticed a confidence and maturity in fellow church members who had joined the college! He knew it was time for him to join.

When he eventually joined the Bible college in 2021, he got the answers to his questions! There was a maturity exhibited by students seated under The Word as they received their answers from knowledge and understanding of The Word!

As he encountered more instructors in the Bible College, he recognized the similar traits of quality and virtue in the instructors. They were incredibly open, honest, elderly teachers, each one speaking from their life experiences and heart relationship with God through The Word.

The question of Grace which had posed controversy with a lot of questions in the religious circle was so simply addressed in various classes. In one of them he gets to understand Grace at the Cross, and Grace at the resurrection! Grace at the Cross paid our price in full and Grace at the resurrection empowers us in the salvation journey in purpose! (Ephes 2:10).

Come to Charis Bible College and let the manifold Grace of God direct you into your purpose and calling. (1 Peter 4:10)

Thank you, Andrew, for hearkening to the call of God and transforming many lives.
